

HOW TO SHAPE PUBLIC OPINION

Men's Sperm Counts Are Dropping, and Scientists Don't Know Why
 LS LIVESTRONG.COM March 2, 2010

In 2001 Epicyte Corporation isolated a protein that causes sterility and spliced its gene into corn so that men and women eating the corn would become sterile. They sold that technology to Monsanto and to DuPont. To date No Congressman, No Senator and No Presidential candidate has dared ask Monsanto, DuPont or Epicyte why they are selling Genetically Modified corn that sterilizes us and our children. Instead, they mandated that all corn needed to be from Monsanto. There is truly something evil about our politicians.
